Issue 2011-02

(Summer) June 2011

Greetings from your RVP--Margaret Kelly

Greetings to all!

May has been a busy month for our Region 9 Iris enthusiasts! Members cleared and cleaned their Iris beds and prepared for the bloom season. It's always exciting to see the new irises bloom for the first time.

The Mid-Illinois Iris Society and the Southern Iris Society held their Iris Show on May 7, 2011 in the Alton Square Mall, Alton, Illinois, with a total of 70 entries and 4 exhibitors. Best specimen was "Fogbound" exhibited by Jeff Kassly and Anita Stephens. The silver medal winner was Jeff Kassly & Anita Stephens, the bronze medal winner was Leora McTall. The show chairman was Anita Stephens.

The Prairie Iris Society's Iris Show was held Saturday May 21, 2011 in the Lincoln Square Mall,

Urbana, Illinois with a total 109 entries and 8 exhibitors of which were 3 youth members. Best specimen was "Tuscan Summer" exhibited by Jerry & Melody Wilhoit. Seedling judged most worthy was P34, a tall bearded iris exhibited by Brian Davis. The silver medal winner was Jerry & Melody Wilhoit, the bronze medal winner was Brian Davis. All three youth members were recognized. Josh exhibited the best specimen "Yaquina Blue" while the Silver Medal was awarded to Carson and the Bronze medal was awarded to Emily. The show co-chairpersons were Brian and Carol Davis.

The Sangamon Valley Iris Show was held Saturday May 14, 2011 in Washington Park Botanical Gardens in Springfield, IL. , with a total of 108 entries and 8 exhibitors, 97 cultivars. The best specimen was "Dorothy Devenport" exhibited by Sue Perryman. The silver medal winner was Nancy & Irv Pocklington, the bronze medal winner was Deb & Dave Miller. The best design was exhibited by Renee Burns. The show co-chairpersons were Patrick Hemmer and Debra Miller.

Northern Illinois Iris Society held an informal exhibition at Sid's Garden Center in Palos Hills, IL on Saturday May 14th, 2011. It was estimated that about 70 stalks were on display. There was no classes or judging, a non sanctioned AIS event. Members displaying Iris were Diana Anshakov, Larry and Barbara Miller, Tish Callos, and Nancy Rataj. Several gorgeous arrangements were displayed by Tish Callos, Barbara Miller, and Betsy Grimm to show how irises can be used outside of the garden. Information tables were set up to provide information on Irises, Diana made a presentation on "How to select, prepare and enter iris shows". Two Irises of the distinction were SDB "Vintage Rose" and "Rare Edition"

All of the Societies here in Region 9 are gearing up for their annual Iris rhizomes sales.

Beginning July 10, 2011 Northern Illinois Sale at the Elmhurst Garden Walk Faire
Next July 23, 2011 Sangamon Valley's Iris Sale at Washington Park Botanical Garden, Springfield
Next July 30, 2011 Prairie's Iris Sale at Lincoln Square, Urbana
And August 6, 2011 Mid Illinois Iris sale.

I am looking forward to our Region 9 Meeting and Iris sale. Arrangements have been made to stay at the Hampton Inn on Chuckwagon Drive in Springfield. Registrations for the special rate for the American Iris Society at the Hampton have a cut off date of July 23rd. We will be setting up for the Iris Sale on Friday afternoon August 12 at the Botanical Gardens in Washington Park from 1-4 PM. Anyone who can help with set up is welcome. All members are welcome to join us for dinner. We will be eating around 5:30 PM at the Baker's Square near the hotel. After that we will go to the hotel and set up for the silent auction and meeting. Several members would like to share their pictures and experiences of the past year after the set up. The hotel serves a free hot continental breakfast for their guests every morning.

Members are encouraged to share their irises for the annual Region 9 Public Iris Sale. All irises should be marked with its name (example – Beverly Sills TB) and priced. If you have any questions, please contact your local president or you may contact me by phone or e-mail). Placement of irises begins 8AM thru 9:30AM at the Botanical Gardens. Business meeting begins at 10:00AM thru 11:30AM at the Hampton Inn. A box lunch will be available 11:30 AM to 12:30PM. The silent auction begins Saturday morning 8AM and runs thru Noon. The public Iris sale will be at the Washington Park Botanical Gardens 1PM to 4PM. Clean up follows the sale.

Attention all Judges!! The American Iris Society Official Ballot was due July 1, 2011

All AIS members may vote in the Tall Bearded Symposium. The symposium ballot is available on line. Voting may be accomplished in a variety of ways:

- You may mail your RVP a list of the iris you are voting for, either names and numbers, or just numbers.
 - You can download the list from the AIS web site (www.irises.org), print it, mark it up, and mail it. (see the link to the ballot below)
 - Most RVP's have email, and those who do will accept any of the above formats that way, too.
- No member may vote for more than twenty-five varieties. You may vote for fewer than twenty-five if you wish. Write-in votes are not allowed and will not be tabulated.
 - Your ballot must be mailed to and received by your Regional Vice President by September 1, 2011 in order to be counted. The name of your RVP is listed inside each AIS Bulletin. Sign your ballot and mail it first class.

We have the meeting room at Hampton for Friday evening and Saturday morning.

Region 9 Plant Sale and Auction

Thank you members who contributed to last year's successful sale. The sale was a success because of your hard work. Let's do it again.

Members are urged to bring iris, daylilies, hosta, and other perennials for the sale. Please clean and trim iris and daylilies. Plants should be named and have a short description marked on them and be fairly priced.

We are depending on our members for most of the sale items and it is these items that we make our money to sponsor our programs.

Region 9 Silent Auction

Items of the Silent Auction will consist of iris, daylilies, and other plants and items of iris interest. Iris should be from varieties introduced in 2005 through 2010. The silent auction is for Region 9 members of AIS and others who pay the registration fee. An announcement defining the specific terminating time will be made throughout the morning. All of your donations for this auction will be greatly appreciated.

Region 9 Plant Exchange

The plant exchange is for Region 9 members and all persons registered for the meeting. Please bring one plant or more per person attending in order to have enough plants for everyone to participate as no purchases have been made for the exchange. It is based solely on donations from members.

Mid-Illinois Show Report

(submitted by Anita Stephens)

The May 7, 2011 Mid-Illinois and Southern Illinois Iris Society show at Alton Square Mall in Alton, Illinois was represented by a colorful and beautiful display of 80 irises to the public. The majority were in the Tall Bearded Section. Attendees were John Bilski; Mike and Gail DeVilbiss; Patrick Hayden; Ernie, Ann, and Ellen Henson; Leora and Ralph McTall; Anita Stephens; and Jeff Kassly.

Master Judges for the show were Steve Poole from Eldorado, Illinois and Jerry and Melody Wilhoit from Kansas, Illinois. Clerks for the show were Leora McTall and Gail DeVilbiss.

Keith Keppel's "Fogbound" entered by Anita Stephens and Jeff Kassly was selected as Queen of Show. Anita and Jeff also received the Silver Medal and Certificate. Leora McTall was a very close runner-up with iris "La Scala" also hybridized by Keith Keppel. Leora is the recipient of the Bronze Medal and Certificate. The Henson's entry of "Dividing Line" in the Miniature Tall Bearded Section hybridized by Chuck Bunnell and introduced in 2004 won Best Specimen in the Miniature Tall Bearded Section. Anita Stephens and Jeff Kassly won Best Specimen of Show in the Intermediate Bearded Section with "Starwoman" by Marky Smith.

The show photographer was Ralph McTall.

Sangamon Valley Show Report

(submitted by Debra Miller)

The Sangamon Valley Iris Society held its 2nd Annual Iris Show on May 14, 2011 at Washington Park Botanical Garden in Springfield, Illinois. There were 8 exhibitors and 102 entries of 97 cultivars.

The Queen of Show was "Dorothy Devenport" entered by Sue Perryman. (Sue joined the SVIS on the day of the show and only entered one cultivar.)

Tall Bearded runners up were:

1st runner up – "Stairway to Heaven" entered by Nancy and Irv Pocklington

2nd runner up – "Alpena" entered by Debra and Dave Miller

3rd runner up – "Mango Passion" entered by Renee Burns and Joe Carlove

The Best in the Intermediate Iris Section was "Misfit" exhibited by Patrick Hemmer. Renee Burns was awarded the Division II Best Design with her entry in Class 3 "Rees Memorial Carillon". Nancy and Irv Pocklington received the Silver Medal sweepstakes award with 14 first place ribbons. Debra and Dave Miller won the Bronze Medal sweepstakes with 13 first place ribbons.

Prairie Iris Show Report

(submitted by Melody Wilhoit)

The Prairie Iris Society held their 24th Annual Iris Show at the Lincoln Square Village Mall in Urbana, Illinois on Saturday May 21, 2011. There were 8 exhibitors and 109 entries with 105 cultivars shown.

The Best of Show was "Tuscan Summer", exhibited by Jerry & Melody Wilhoit. The Silver Medal winner was Jerry & Melody Wilhoit. The Bronze Medal winner was Brian & Carol Davis. The Bronze medal for Outstanding Educational Exhibit was Margaret Kelly. The Youth Division had 3 exhibitors with 12 entries and 9 cultivars. The Best Specimen for Youth was Yaquina Blue exhibited by Josh. The Silver Medal was won by Carson with 4 blue ribbons and the Bronze Medal was won by Emily for 2 blue ribbons. There was an increased interest in our Show this year as we gained several new members who indicated interest in iris and wanting to get involved in learning about irises. A special thanks to our judges for this show who were the following: Barbara & Larry Miller, Ernie & Ann Henson, Richard Funk and Anita Stephens. The show chairmen were Brian and Carol Davis. Thanks to all our members for participating in the show and making our show most successful.

The Washington Park Botanical Garden, which is open year round, is one of Central Illinois major horticultural attractions. It has 20 acres of land featuring more than 1800 species of plants in 10 specific garden areas and the Conservatory. The Conservatory is a 50-ft diameter glass dome containing over 150 species of plants with exotic and economically important plants. The plants are arranged by regions to which they are native. The Botanical Garden also features an additional 9,000 square feet of indoor greenhouse area. Discover tropical Africa, the jungles of Asia, and the rainforests of South America. Seasonal displays include Easter lilies, poinsettias, orchid exhibits and Japanese bonsai displays. Surrounding the conservatory are a variety of gardens, including a 5,000 plant rose garden, the largest of its kind in central Illinois, an Iris and Daylily Garden, perennial border, Betty Mood Smith Rockery, peony collection, shade garden, Roman Cultural, and Learn-to-Grow garden.
